Instructions to Applicants

It is the objective of the society to provide good quality legal services to the eligible litigants for legal aid. While it is desired that opportunities should be given to large number of advocates to be associated with legal aid however the primary objective of the society is to provide quality legal services and towards the said end, experienced advocates who are regularly practising in Delhi High Court will be preferred for empanelment.

1. Applicants having independent practice will be given preference over applicants who are practising as juniors.
2. Applicants with reported judgments in their names will be given preference. Applicants are required to carry copies of the reported judgments in which the applicant has been appeared as the lead counsel and/or appeared as a briefing counsel in the last 3 years.
3. Applicants with regular appearances in the Delhi High Court in the area chosen by them in the application form will be given preference. Applicants are required to carry copies of the order sheets with them showing their court appearances in the High Court in the last one year.
4. Suitability assessment by the interview panel shall be the prime consideration for selection.
